

Evergreen Farms Celebrates Opening Day of New Disc Golf Course

WHO: Evergreen Farms Christmas Trees

WHAT: The brand new nine-hole disc golf course, set among 40-acres of beautiful Texas country, is opening in Elgin, Texas at Evergreen Farms.

To celebrate opening day, the course will be open to the public with an Ace Run, raffle, closest to the pin contest, gear for sale and more.

A concession stand will be open, selling hamburgers, hot dogs, soda, snacks and more.

After Opening Day, the course will be available for special events and tournaments by appointment.

COST: Admission is free to the public.

$5 Ace Run starting at 1 p.m.

WHEN: April 12, 2008 from 10 a.m. to dark

WHERE: 242 Monkey Road

Elgin, TX 78621

ABOUT EVERGREEN FARMS

Since 1981, Mike and Beth Walterscheidt have grown Christmas trees in Texas – first in Bryan, Texas and now in Elgin, Texas. The Walterscheidt's live on their 40-acre farm in Elgin, which was bought in 1989, with the first harvest in 1996. Beth Walterscheidt is the Immediate Past President of the National Christmas Tree Association.

Evergreen Farms is more than just a Christmas tree farm, it is an experience that you can share and enjoy with family and friends. Besides Christmas tree season, Evergreen Farms hosts the Great Pumpkin Hunt in October and A Little Bit of Texas Tour in the spring. Evergreen Farms was chosen as Distinguished Business of the Year and Agriculturist of the Year by the Greater Elgin Chamber of Commerce. It was also selected by American Airlines as one of their top five favorite Christmas tree farms in the nation. For more information, visit our website at www.evergreen-farms.com.

CONTACT: Frank Lopez, Disc Golf Course Organizer

(909) 568-9585

Mike and Beth Walterscheidt, Evergreen Farms

512-281-4833

www.evergreen-farms.com

evergreen@evergreen-farms.com